thought, social discourse and spiritual concerns as a basis for a new vision of sacro-civic society. He has widely experimented with new approaches to learning and creativity e.g. innovative technique of 'sabd yoga', 'osmotic meditation' approach to enhance creativity, 'mind flying' techniques to get a feel of 'enlightening experiences', 'hello' approach to invoking creativity, self transformation & development of positive attitude, poetic approach to teach management ideas and Etc (Extended transcendental consciousness) Etc technique to invoke 'charismatic creativity'.

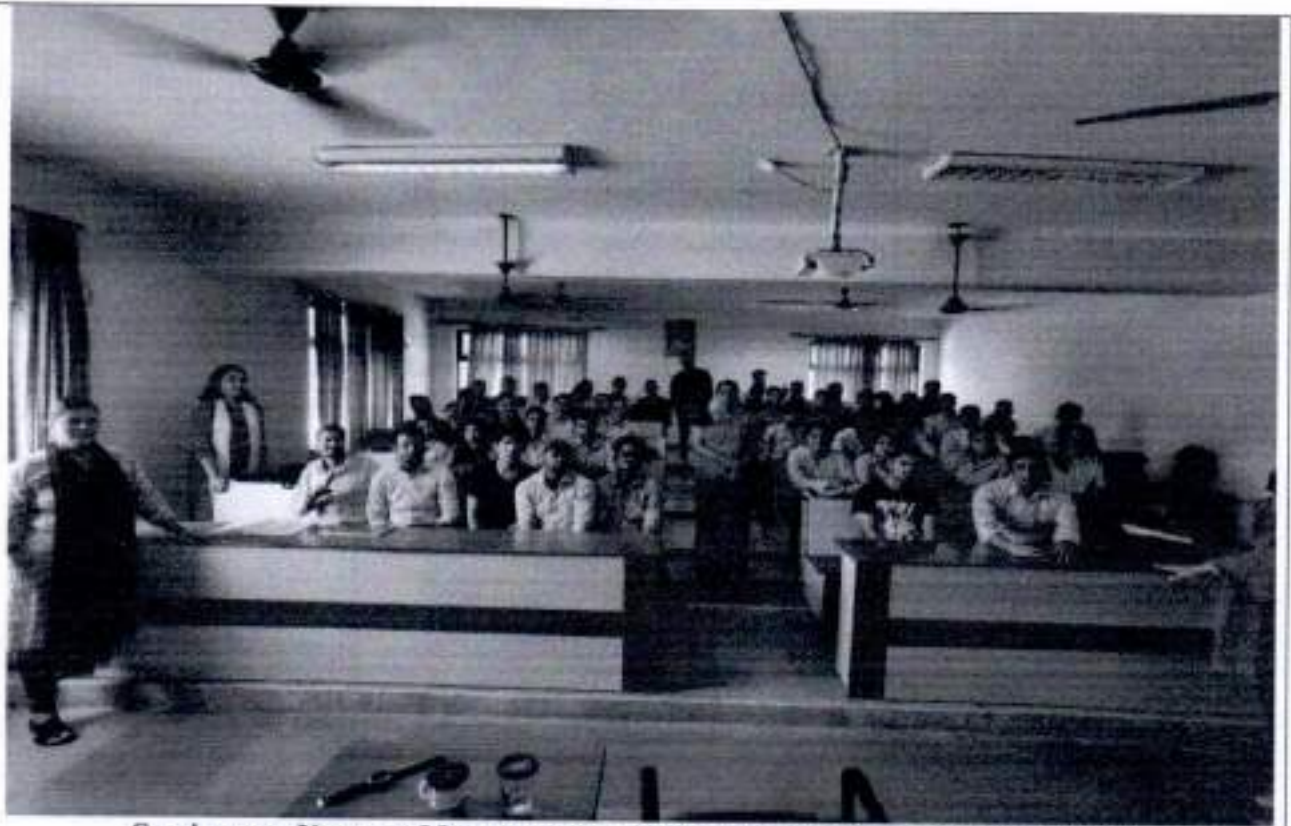

Lecture Highlights :

Increased global contacts have necessitated that Western managers acquire greater understanding of the 'Eastern Doors', and Eastern managers look beyond the 'Western Windows'. He said that using the methodology of position-opposition-proposition, discussion-dialogue-discourse and the innovative idea of 'sabd yoga'. He talked about his book which looks at various perspective related to society, organizations and individuals with which managers in the new age have to contend. Accordingly, the foundations of the management in new age are based on Holistic Development and Management (HDM), Human Quality Development (HQD) and Total Quality of Mind (TQM). He said that it is important the interlinks are established between management thought, social discourse and spiritual concerns that constitute three foundational themes of the book. Through an integration of market, society and self, it articulates the vision of sacro-civic society and sacro-civic nations rooted in harmony paradigm that aims at a new balance between utilitarian, ecotarian and ethicotarian philosophies of life. He suggested the need for a paradigm shift from, 'survival of the fittest to eliminate the rest' to 'arrival of the best to lead the rest'.

Event was coordinated by Ms. Pooja Kudesia & Ms. Smita Kaushik.

A Report of Workshop on
“Design Thinking and Innovation Development”
21st December 2019

A workshop on Design Thinking and Innovation Development was organised on 21st December 2019 by the Institution's Innovation Council Cell of the university in association with 'Zeetron Networks'.

It provides technical training to young aspirants to achieve their goals. The main aim of the workshop was to encourage students towards entrepreneurship and to develop solutions by some innovative thinking. The experts had taught about the out of the box thinking to fight with the today's challenges. They suggest to create a means for the outside the box and also dig that bit deeper into problem solving. It helps designers carry out the right kind of research, create prototypes and test out products and services to uncover new ways to meet users' needs. They demonstrated how design thinking improves the world around us every day because of its ability to generate ground-breaking solutions in a disruptive and innovative way. Design thinking is more than just a process, it opens up an entirely new way to think, and offers a collection of hands-on methods to help you apply this new mindset. They also elaborate the five stage process of Design Thinking. They also demonstrate the necessity of innovation development and figured out that the most fulfilling thing about an innovation is being able to actualize an idea into a successful concept. To do this, one need to go through a long and complex process. For anyone to succeed he must understand the process well and must have the support needed; this is what differentiates a successful innovation process from an unsuccessful innovation process.

93 participants have attended the workshop out of 100 registrations and get benefitted in terms of current trends and research in the said field.
