Claim	The University has been following scholarships and freeships to the students under Merit- Cum-Means Scheme and Balika Shiksha Sambbal Yojana. Large numbers of students are getting benefitted

	under these schemes. The data as per the template has been provided giving details of the students benefitted during the last five years, this data does not include the students who have received scholarships under government schemes meant for reserved categories. The data indicates that there is an increasing trend in the numbers of students who have been benefitted under the schemes and overall percentage of the students in this category comes to about 28.54 percent, which is significantly high. All the relevant documents including financial statements supporting the claim are attached. The university claims full credit on this metric.
